Opening of New Goods

Beginning Business on a New Scale

Your Attention Invited

To the People of the Sample Vicinity and Breckenridge County:

I have made a Complete Settlement with my creditors and am now ready to serve my customers again at the same old place, but in a different way, as I have added to my stock a lot of up-to-date goods, just from the factories in Cincinnati, St. Louis and Louisville; thus cutting out the jobbers' profits, and enabling me to sell them at prices much lower than merchandise ever was sold before in this vicinity.

My stock consists of the famous

R. J. R. Brand Shoes

in up-to-date Men's, Boys', Women's, Misses' and Children's Shoes, all in the very Latest Styles

Men's Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Ladies' Dress Goods, Notions, Groceries, Hardware, Farm Implements, Fertilizer.

In fact, everything the Farmer, Mechanic and Housewife needs. Below I will give you a few of my prices, enabling you to have some idea as to the bargains I have to offer

Granulated Sugar a lb. 5c Best grade Flour a bag 75c Best calico a yard 5c Men's $15 Suits at $10 Boys' $7 Suits at $4

I have made arrangements with hotels to take all my Poultry, Eggs and Butter, thereby cutting out the commission man's profit which enables me to pay you Louisville prices for your produce. I respectfully solicit your patronage and assure you I can save you money and will do all in my power to please you.

Yours truly

G. W. ESKRIDGE, : Sample, Ky.

Major Butt's Successor.

Washington, May 24.—Major George E. Stockle, Ninth Cavalry, has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the Quartermaster's Department caused by the death of Major Butt, but he has not been appointed aid to the President nor is it expected that he will be. Major Butt, while aid to the President, was nominally serving in the Quartermaster's Department. His death leaves a vacancy in the number of officers assigned to duty in that department. Major Rhoades, Medical Corps, several weeks ago was appointed aid to President Taft, succeeding Major Butt, and is now with the President.
